Live Well San Diego Advance
Track A: Healthy Safe and Thriving Kids
November 3, 2016 – 2:15 to 4:00 PM
Royal Palms Ballroom

I.) Introduction and Setting the Stage for Health, Safe and Thriving Kids
   Sandy McBrayer, CEO, Children’s Initiative

II.) Healthy Kids
   A.) Preview of Report on State of Childhood Obesity in San Diego County
      Cheryl Moder, Vice President, Community Health Improvement Partners
   B.) Physical Activity Resources for Schools: Fit2LearnFit4Life
      Paige Metz, Coordinator, Instruction and Curriculum, San Diego County Office of Education
   C.) School Wellness Policy in Action
      Lynn Barnes-Wallace, Physical Education Project Manager, San Diego Unified School District
      Corrie Burgess, Teacher, Kearny High School
      Patrice Breslow, School Nurse, San Diego Unified School District

III.) Thriving Kids
   A.) Importance of Reading in Children’s Lives
      Sandy McBrayer, CEO, Children’s Initiative
   B.) What’s Happening in Our Libraries
      Susan Moore, Deputy Director, San Diego County Library
   C.) Reach Out and Read
      Dr. Nate McFarland, American Academy of Pediatrics, California Chapter 3

IV.) Safe Kids
   A.) Injury Morbidity and Mortality in San Diego
      Sandy McBrayer, CEO, Children’s Initiative
   B.) Safe Kids San Diego: Successful Injury Prevention Programs
      Renee Douglas, Manager of Trauma Service, Rady Children’s Hospital San Diego
   C.) What’s Happening in our Parks
      Brian Albright, Director, County of San Diego Parks and Recreation

V.) Sharing Data to Guide Investments
   A.) Using Data from the San Diego County Report Card on Children & Families
      Sandy McBrayer, CEO, Children’s Initiative
   B.) Local Data and Birth Outcomes Informing Investments
      Dr. Tina Chambers, Director of Clinical Research for the Department of Pediatrics, UCSD
      Dr. Dean Sidelinger, Child Health Medical Officer, County of San Diego, HHSA

VI.) Questions & Comments