

Pathways Community Services Resolution

Quote from partner representative about Live Well designation:

When asked about the Live Well San Diego initiative, Maria Morgan, Regional Director of Pathways Community Services said, "Pathways supports and promotes the well-being of all our participants and their families. This aligns perfectly with the principles and values of San Diego County's Live Well initiative. We have a passion and drive to ensure the members of our community and our employees are exposed to these values every day."
