For Recognized Partners

Recognized Partner Networking

Connect with other Partners and share your engagement ideas!

Communications Hub

Recognized Partners can learn how best to communicate content across Live Well San Diego platforms.

Recognized Partners are invited to introduce themselves, network with other partners, and become familiar with the tools the site offers.

Note: Registration is required to access these two projects.

3 Engage with Your Community

Recognized Partner Networking

We are excited to have a space where all of our Live Well San Diego Recognized Partners can connect! We have set permissions for this project site so that only other Recognized Partner's will be able to see the information you provide. This page is currently set up to help you become familiar with some of the tools the site offers.

Let's get to know each other to help enhance collaborative efforts. Share a bit about yourself and your organizational focus, share your favorite community areas, and help others learn more about issues and gaps we should be prioritizing. Click on the tabs below to engage!
